

June 17, 2013

Commercial Jet's President receives the Governor's Business Ambassador Award in Paris

Governor Rick Scott awarded 14 Florida companies and business leaders with the Governor's Business Ambassador Award during his business development mission to the Paris Air Show. Governor Scott presented David M. Sandri, President of Commercial Jet the award during the Grand Opening of the Florida Pavilion. The Governor's Business Ambassador Awards are presented to companies for their commitment to expanding business opportunities in Florida to create more jobs and opportunities for Florida families.

Governor Scott said, "I was honored to recognize individuals and companies who are helping to grow our state's economy. Our business development mission to Paris is one way we can help create more jobs and economic investment in our state, which will have a big impact in creating more opportunities for Florida families."

